To our Younger alumni or children who are college students or graduate students or post graduate students:

National Chiao Tung University Ladies Committee with the loyal cooperation of the man members have talked about what a fine thing it would be to carry on our fine school traditions. The members feel that it would be very worthwhile to organize a younger generation group to:

1. know each other for good fellowship and understanding
2. Discover common interests
3. Discuss educational pursuits and careers

In order to start this, we like you to return the following questionnaire to the writer the soonest.

Sincerely Yours,

National Chiao Tung University Ladies
Committee
Seroun H. Wang (Mrs. C. C. Wang) 398
Saville Road
Nineola, Long Island, N. Y. 11501

1. What do you think of joining or participating in Younger generation group discussions? What do you think of group meetings? meeting social or hospitality hour?
2. Some discussion topics (Your choices and opinions are invited)
 - a. Cultural and friendly relations between U. S.-born and China-born younger generation
 - b. Educational pursuits and various careers
 - c. Anything you feel of Common interest
3. How can we draw the younger generation together?
4. What time would be best for general meetings?
 - a. Before the start of the school semester in September
 - b. Thanksgiving holidays
 - c. Christmas holidays
 - d. All three times

We urgently need your help and support. Please write me today. We are awaiting your reply in order to start the Plan
