The first year of doctoral program

"One of the most memorable moments in my life - I accepted the scholarship offered by National Yang Ming Chiao Tung University (NYCU) for my Doctoral study in the Department of Computer Science. Being in one of the world's oldest, most vibrant, best-ranked universities and one of the best-ranked departments among Taiwan's top universities, I know I must assimilate state-of-the-art concepts to earn a graduation certificate. However, I have accepted the challenge and working hard toward my dream of becoming a Ph.D. awardee. The Professors, Department, and the University are extending their generous support, and I am pleased that I got a chance to be a part of this esteemed University, which will facilitate my future professional prospects."
