

Hsu Wen Chi of NYCU has won the Bronze Medal in Women's Singles Badminton at the World University Games

🕒 2023-08-15 - 📁 News

NYCU athlete Hsu Wen Chi secured a gold medal in the mixed team event (photo from SSU)

On August 2nd, 2023, NYCU athlete Hsu Wen Chi secured a gold medal in the mixed team event at the World University Games. On August 6th, she once again faced strong opponents and displayed resilience, achieving a bronze medal in women's singles badminton.

Director Wang Chi Chuan of the Sports Department in the National Yang Ming Chiao Tung University (NYCU) stated that this is the first time ever in the University history that an athlete has won a badminton bronze medal at the World University Games, marking the best achievement in the school's history. Ms. Hsu has not only excelled in her academic performance but has also consistently achieved outstanding results in sports, earning a spot as a national team member. Representing NYCU for the country and achieving such excellent results have brought great honor and pride to the entire school community.

On the 9th, President Tsai received all the heroes of the World University Games, including athlete Hsu at the Presidential Office. She encouraged and thanked each and every one of these Taiwanese heroes who have made the nation proud at the World University Games.

Taiwanese players achieved outstanding results in the 2023 World University Games. (photo from SSU)