Snapshots

CHRISTIAN NATHANIEL PURWANTO (INDONESIA)

Receiving a scholarship for my Master's at NYCU has been an honor. Specializing in Natural Language Processing, I conducted research and government projects combating the spread of Taiwan Fake News. Under the guidance of Prof. Wen-Chih Peng, our thesis paper earned the Merit Award at TAAI 2021. Volunteering at OIA and EECS events during my leisure time, I not only enjoyed the free food but also formed connections with friends from various countries, each with unique stories. Overall, I'm grateful for this experience, preparing me for the challenges of the professional world.
