Snapshots

Maximilian Looser

I come from the Technical University of Munich, majoring in Electrical and Computer Engineering. Taiwan was ideal for me, offering top-tier education, close ties to the semiconductor industry, and rich research opportunities.

At NYCU, I enjoyed a collaborative academic environment, working with world-class professors and peers from diverse backgrounds, applying knowledge to real-world challenges. Campus life was vibrant, with cultural festivals, seminars, and a scenic setting that enriched my experience.

Studying at NYCU has been a transformative journey, blending academic excellence with cultural discovery and preparing me for future success.
