Smart Campus Co-Creation Workshop: Information Service Journey

Information systems are essential to campus life. This Smart Campus Co-Creation Workshop will use design thinking tools like personas and journey maps to analyze user experiences and identify improvements. Through this process, we hope participants will enhance their engagement in shaping a better campus experience.

This event is part of the Co-Learning Series by the Office of Student Affairs. The workshop will be conducted in Chinese. For registration details, please refer to the Co-Learning event registration form: https://forms.gle/X9nJhos8Amc5tpgZA
