Acknowledgements

The immense gratitude is given to my doctoral adviser, professor Cheng-Min Feng, for his patient instruction and endless encouragement. Special thanks are also given to the committee during my dissertation defense, without their penetrating and helpful opinions, this dissertation can not be completed. Moreover, I appreciate all the professors in the doctoral program, due to their edifying tuition; the research abilities of mine can hence be improved. And finally, I would like to appreciate my classmates and colleagues, owing to all your support and shares to give me a colorful and fulfilled Ph.D. study life.

Dedicated to my parents and family
